Written Responses to NC Family Police Council Survey

Kevin Hayes US Senate Candidate

- 1). I don't think the Government should be in the business of regulating Wages. Let the free market determine and set wages.
- 2). Government should not place the burden of requiring individuals to have health insurance.
- 3). The federal government should not be in the business of gambling period and that includes regulating it. Often times government benefits from people's addiction to gambling through tax revenue and so on. This is wrong and it must stop.
- 4). The 1st amendment is clear. I am conflicted about this question as the 1st amendment already protects people but if legislation came up that would help enforce the 1st amendment then I would be in favor of it.
- 5). I am conflicted on this one. If Congress does legalize medical Marijuana then it would need to be regulated like other drugs. I really believe this is more of a state issue than a federal issue.
- 6). Prohibiting internet gambling (I am assuming this is referring to sites like Draft Kings and Fan Dule) can tread into the area of Government controlling the internet. This is a gray area to me when I line it up against the US Constitution. I am open to hearing both sides on this issue. Gambling in itself goes against many Biblical Principles I believe but at the same time I have to factor in the Constitution.
- 7). I do not support any legislation which would give merit to "gender identification" or "sexual orientation" Those people have the Constitution to protect their rights. I do not believe they should earn special rights or be recognized for their lifestyle.
- 8). I answered this NO because I am running for Federal office and the Federal Government should be in the education business period. Even if they are teaching things I would agree with otherwise.
- 9). Abortion is murder period. It's wrong to give tax payers money to organizations who kill innocent children. I will be the best friend of the Pre-born in Washington.
- 10). I support any legislation that would protect innocent life.
- 11). A person who is a born-again Christian cannot help but to be influenced by their personal Relationship with Jesus Christ. That being said if someone's religious belief goes against the US Constitution then they should always go with the US Constitution while in office. I find no conflict in the US Constitution with the Bible. I'm sure other religions many have many issues with the US Constitution. I have no issue with someone's religious beliefs influencing their policy as long as it does go against the US Constitution.
- 12). I am in favor of ending 501c3 for churches. I simply think churches should be tax exempt without the government strings that come with 501c3.
- 13). I would be in favor of a balance the budget amendment.
- 14). I am in favor of any legislation which further strengthens the 1st Amendment.
