4. In the space below, or on a separate sheet of paper, please describe your overall judicial philosophy.

I try to approach each case in a fair and impartial manner without any preconceived bias or desired outcome. That is the only true way to do justice.

5. In the space below, or on a separate sheet of paper, please describe the role faith plays in your daily life.

Like many other Americans, judges can and do have deep religious convictions. Those beliefs however should not interfere with performance of the job and I think judges should always be cognizant of their personal religious and philosophical beliefs so that they are careful to base their legal opinions on the law and facts before them and nothing else. That is what I endeavor to do.
